

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

July 22, 2004

Dr. Burton Fletcher

On behalf of all Californians, I am pleased to convey my sincere congratulations as you retire following 25 years as a university and college professor.

As you depart from a career in education, you leave behind a legacy of professionalism and dedication to your work.

Public service is a noble calling, and you can take great pride in your work on behalf of the people of California. Your contributions have been instrumental in helping to ensure that California is strong and prosperous.

Congratulations once again and please accept my best wishes for a retirement that is both enjoyable and fulfilling.

Sincerely,
